Dear Parents/Carers and Students

It is important that following on from tomorrow's A-level results, you are able to make the correct and informed choices and know where to go to receive help and support. Below are some organisations that may be useful to you. I have added a short overview for each of the links.

The Careers and Enterprise Company offer a whole range of information around finding support. Pathways and next steps as well as online videos on how to add value and vital information, from employers in the recruitment process.

The Careers & Enterprise Company,
My Choices - Learn Live

learnliveuk.com

This link to the UCAS site allows you to access all the support on offer but leads you directly to the Careers Advice area on helping you find a job and looks at options such as university, apprenticeships, interns and gap years. This is a fantastic site and signposts to lots of organisations giving sound advice for a student's choices.
